CALENDARIO

Ho Lunes	Martes	Hiercoles	Thursday	Fryday	Sunday	Sunday
					1 I'm taking my cousins photos of our Día de muertos after tomorrow	I'm meeting my cousins on November 2nd
2	3 We're watching a movie about Mexican history next week	9	5 I'm attending a cultural fair next Thursday	6 I'm visiting the museum next Fryday	7 We're going to a concert next Fryday	8 I'm a preparing my presentation tomorrow
9 We're watching a movie about Mexican history next week	10	11 We're having a dos próxic next weekend	12	13 I'm cleaning my room this weekend	14 REVISADO INGLES Teacher Michellez	15
16	17	18 We're having a day off on November 18th	19	20 I'm going to the parade on November 20th	21	22 We're playing the museum next Fryday
23 We're visiting our English teacher's office on Monday	24	25	26	27	28 I'm helping my mom cook this Saturday	29

30

September 25th 2025
Topic: Stative verbs

Stative Verb	Correct usage	Incorrect usage
like	I like you	I am liking you love	I love you	I am loving you

Stative verbs are verbs that describe a state rather the an action.
When describing states, they never take the continuous ('-ing') form.

Examples:
Opinions and beliefs believe, know, think, support, disagree
Emotions like, love, hate, need, want, wish, desire, fear Senses look, see, appear, taste, sound, hear, feel, seen, smell Possession have, own, possess, belong, control Condition weigh, lack, involve, resemble, include

ABRIL ABIS

GRAMMAR WORKSHEET
STATIVE VERBS

Apple ___ will stay the freshest because

Connectors for linking ideas and - y

but - pero

so - así que

because - porque

and = links two ~~two~~ related things but = links a positive (+) and negative (-) idea so = because =

Yaren and her granddad can go for a picnic because the weather is warm

Peter

Cindy like cooking but she hate cycling

Participation Ticket
LET'S TALK

Hate Like love Prefer

We can use hate, like love and prefer with and -ing form or with a to-infinitive

I hate to see food being thrown away

I love going to the cinema

I prefer listening to the news on radio than watching